SECTION B: 50 MARKS

(Questions 51 to 55, carry 10 marks each)

51. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Kibirige lives in one of the areas in Rakai. He has a very big family. He has five wives, each with six children. Kibirige is boastful about the size of his family. He says he is the most important man in the whole of Rakai District.

The big family has only one advantage to Kibirige. It is just a big labour force on his coffee and cassava shambas. Otherwise, he finds much difficulty to provide for the members of his family.

He has a problem to raise money to buy clothes for his wives and children. Many of his children roam the village naked. None of his children is at school. His family spends many months without eating meat.

The Local Councils are annoyed with Kibirige. They have tried many times to educate him about family planning and having children at school, but in vain. They want to arrest and imprison him for denying his children the benefits of Universal Primary Education.

Chorus

Children have the right to life
To families and names
Education, food and health
And freedom to play games

Wash your clothes and dishes
Sweep the house and compound
When you have done your duties
You'll have time to play around.

You must obey your parents
You must protect your rights
You all must help each other
Co-operate, don't fight.

Chorus

Your parents feed your body
Your teachers feed your mind
They both need lots of exercises
For health of every kind
