Naalya Village,
P.O. Box 202,
Namugongo.

2nd November, 2022

Dear Mummy,

I am pleased to write to you again after such a long time. How are you and how is work in Nairobi? Back here, we are alright and I am preparing for Primary Leaving Examination (PLE).

Mummy, I am writing to inform you that our school successfully registered us for the PLE 2022 and we are very happy. Now, I am ready to sit for the Primary Leaving Examination. In fact, all the candidates have been briefed by our head teacher, Mr. Kato Joseph.

During the briefing he said, "All of you should take note of the PLE time table. This will help you to know how the subjects have been arranged." He also emphasized that we should read the general instructions carefully and those inside the question paper. After that, the head teacher gave a chance to all P.7 teachers to brief us too. Mrs. Okello, our class teacher advised on filling in information on the first page carefully. She also told us to read each question twice, understand and then answer what is required.

The other three teachers talked about writing our responses in the spaces provided in the question paper. They encouraged us to have confidence in ourselves. They added that all the questions set are within the curriculum. They warned us against any kind of examination malpractice.

Mummy, the teachers also reassured us that we shall pass with flying colors. I am ready and revising seriously following the time table. Pray for me not to forget what I was taught.

Please, send my regards to my little brother Joel Anthony. I wish you all the best while doing your work.

*Your loving daughter,
Katoko Elizabeth*

54. Read the poem below carefully and then answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Examinations! Examinations!
You are found in every school,
All candidates eagerly await your arrival,
At the beginning, in the middle and end of term.

Those who are not ready will fear,
Their savior is examination malpractice
Serious children will be comfortable,
For they know results will be good.

Fellow candidates, revise your notes,
Set a time table for your revision,
Go through the past papers in all subjects,
This helps you memorize facts.

Examinations are very important,
They help teachers know our ability,
Schools with good results become famous,
And they bring joy to those with passes.

Okalebo Caleb
