SECTION B: 50 MARKS

Questions 51 to 55 carry ten marks each

51. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

A GOLDEN KEY

You are soon completing primary education. There is no doubt that you look forward to enjoying the vacation which will be followed by Secondary education. You are not far from college, university and finally to the job of your choice. Therefore, you will definitely earn money not only for yourself but also for other people in need. It is at this time that you need to remember, "You are the key to open different doors."

Before you open different doors you will have to do a lot of reading especially about people who have succeeded greatly despite problems.

Such people include Nelson Mandela from South Africa. He was jailed for 27 years but he later became president of that nation. Hellen Keller was an American lecturer who pleaded for people with special needs.

Sudha Chandran is a well-known Indian dancer despite being an amputee. Doctor Wangari Mathai was a Kenyan professor who fought against deforestation. Mahatma Gandhi was great Indian leader who preached equality among the poor. We cannot forget the great Ethiopian athletes like Haile Gebrselassie, Kenenisa Bekele and Abebe Bikila. They all won gold for their countries. Other athletes; Dorcas Inzikuru and Stephen Kiprotich have kept Ugandan flag high.

Among prominent personalities is also Steve Wonder an American song writer, singer and musician yet was born blind.

There are many famous people who have struggled from humble lives to the world fame. They have contributed to the wellbeing of others. They opened their doors wide.

You too can make it if you have a goal and the determination to achieve that goal. The best way to do it is to know what you want, plan how to achieve it and on many times look for advice and support from people you can contact.

- (a) According to the story, who is the key?
- (b) What are the doors?
.....
- (c) Mention any institution that follows primary school.
.....
- (d) Which education level would be best before one gets a job?
.....
- (e) Which African leader have you admired?
.....

- (f) From which country was the environmentalist?
- (g) What was the great achievement of the athletes from Ethiopia?

54. Recite the Poem below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Fight for rights
Among children on streets
Neglected and rejected
Depressed and distressed
Misused and abused.

Children on the streets
Dressed in rags
Addicted to drugs
Wandering like stray dogs
Disowned by their Master!

Children in homes
Sorrowful life to tell
Some stories never told at all
Some voices never heard of
Yet they are ones for rights
By children in homes

There are children in this world
Whose rights are highly respected
Whose life is meaningful
They rise up to defend their rights
Health, education, food and care
They rise up to fight for their rights!
