SECTION B: 50 MARKS

Questions 51 to 55 carry 10 marks each

51. Read the passage below carefully and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

Friday 19th July, 2024 surprised every pupil. The Drama club teacher of St. Nicholas Ingema Primary School allowed us to attend school in home clothes. We had to wash our uniforms in readiness for drama festivals the next day. That morning, I could not stop admiring myself. I looked into the mirror for the last time before rushing out of the room. Just as I was about to step out of the door, mother blocked the way.

"You will not wear that dress to school," she said. "Why?" I asked in surprise. The dress is way above your knees. Why can't you wear one of the dresses I bought you recently from Kafoko Market?" Mother disapproved everything I did. The previous week, she opposed my plan to braid my hair with multi-coloured braids like my friend Angellah who came to school in blue and yellow braids.

Mother was now criticising my dress which I had bought using my own money! No, mother was ancient. She knew nothing about fashion. "Nobody in my class wears long dresses. They are so old fashioned..." I said to her. She shook her head vigorously. I knew I had broken one of her cardinal rules. I decided to go to my bedroom. I did not remove the dress. Instead, I wore on top one of the longest dresses mother had recommended and I rushed to school.

When I got to school, I went straight to the washrooms and removed the long dress. How could I wear such an ugly dress to class? I straightened the short dress and congratulated myself for being smart. I found everyone seated, ready for the first lesson. As soon as I entered, everyone shouted; Zawadi, our girl, Zawadi, our girl as all the boys whistled continuously.
