Planning for holiday begin right a way after the end of term exams. I always come back home when I have already listed the activities to do it is very interesting to plan for the short enjoyable time after along term's hard work.

I usually spend my holiday up country, so my plans always have activities to be carried out in the village. This time round, I ran out of ideas and innovations to have wonderful holiday. So, I had to ask my friend Denis about his plan for the coming holiday.

"I am going to spend my holiday here in Entebbe this time," he responded. He added he had got tired to travelling to rural areas every holiday. When I asked him about the activities he was to do, he responded saying, "I will of course read my books since am in a candidate class, I will do domestic chores, I will also visit my friends like you, I will you, I will celebrate my birthday on 25th May, 2013.

From his response, I also made my own plan of staying in town. In the plan, I also had activities like cleaning the compound, doing domestic work, reading books and others. It is usually a memorable period because it makes your minds fresh.
