SECTION B

51. Read the passage and then answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Kadondi was brought up in Kirabo Babies' Home. This followed the fatal accident along the Masaka-Kampala Road where a speeding bus overturned and both of his parents died with other twenty passengers. This was thirteen years back.

Kadondi went to Kamwanyi Secondary School for his education and while in Senior two, he learnt the story of his parents' death. He was reading a Mukeeze Newspaper that carried that story. Kadondi who had known Kirabo Babies' Home as his home was shocked by the story.

He then decided to ask the matron at his "home" about his relatives. The matron told him that records show that his home and other relatives were not known. She told him of how he had been one of the survivors of the accident when he was brought to Kirabo Babies' Home. He was by then a baby of two years of age. Even the name Kadondi was given to him by the matrons.

Kadondi was sorry to hear that story but was happy to note that these matrons treated him and other orphans as their real children. He decided to study hard to make a bright future.

When he graduated as a doctor from Makerere University, he was given a good job. He also started looking after the orphans in Kirabo Babies' Home as a way of paying back. He hopes to trace his home and see his relatives.

Adam:

Lilian: A bank is a place where people keep their money.

Adam:

Lilian: First, you open an account with the bank, then you deposit the money in that account.

Adam:

Lilian: The bank manager will help you to open up an account in the bank.

Adam:

Lilian: No, he won't steal it because it will be saved in your account.

Adam:

Lilian: To use your money, you go to the same bank, fill a slip and withdraw your money.

Adam:

Lilian: You can find a bank in every town in Uganda.

Adam:

Lilian: You had better open an account before thieves steal it from you, goodbye Adam.

Adam:
