Masugu Primary School,
P.O. Box 251
Kamwenge

Tuesday, 5th February 2024

Dear Mother,

How are you? I hope you are fine,

This is just to let you know that I arrived safely at school. The taxi driver dropped us right at the school gate, thank you for accompanying me to the taxi park.

At school here, I have found few of my former schoolmates who have also joined this school. We have formed a study group of three. Unfortunately my friend Kayonga didn't pass the primary five end of year examinations well enough to join a boarding school. I hear he has joined a day school in Kampala.

Let me end by asking you to greet everyone at home.

Yours affectionate son,
Fred

When the traffic light turns red
Cyclists and motorists stop
And then pedestrians hurry up to cross
Because the road is now clear.

Pedestrians never cross the road
When the traffic lights turn green
For it is time for vehicles to move
If you do so, expect a terrible accident.

Pedestrians always remember
To cross the road at a zebra crossing
But ensure that the road is clear
Because most drivers don't respect road users,

Evans
